Fr Paul writes...

The Gospel reading for the 21st Sunday in ordinary time, makes clear that the primacy of Peter amongst the disciples is not some later development to support the dominance of the Bishops of Rome over the rest of the Church but has its origin very clearly in the will of Christ himself.

Peter repeatedly displayed his human weakness and yet Jesus chose him to lead the continuation of his mission in the world, perhaps because in recognising his own weakness Peter was able to see his need to rely totally on God's strength rather than his own. Out of that recognition Peter made his declaration of faith that we hear in the Gospel. God's grace gave him the insight to recognise the unique reality of Christ.

We make a declaration of faith during Mass each Sunday in the form of the Creed. The version we use for most of the year was largely written by the Council of Nicaea in AD 325. Underpinning this rather long list of the things we, and the vast majority of Christians around the world, believe is the simple but profound truth contained in Peter's declaration that 'You are the Christ, the Son of the living God.'

In response to this foundational statement of faith, Jesus appointed Peter the foundation, the rock, upon which the Church would be built. Like Peter, some later holders of the office of Bishop of Rome have been weak human beings, some of whom who did not fully fulfil their duties as leaders of the Church, but the Church and its mission has continued and flourished because at the heart of it is the faith of so many Christians, that despite our human failings Jesus is still the Christ, the Son of the living God, fulfilling his mission through each of us.

Please return your completed form to SH office before the deadline indicated on the form to avoid disappointment. These registration arrangements apply to Sacred Heart only. Other churches in the parish are not yet open for FHC or Confirmation registrations. Registration at other churches will open in September, details will be advertised once applications are available. Please do not submit applications for other churches at this time.

Collection Counting at St Theresa's
We are looking for more volunteers to join the collection counting team at St Theresa's. We do not have enough people available to ensure the counting rota can run smoothly, so we would be very grateful for anyone who is able to offer their support. Collection counting takes place after the Sunday Mass and usually takes around half an hour. It involves working in pairs to count the collection and complete a simple form. Training will be provided by shadowing one of our existing volunteers, so no previous experience is needed. The more volunteers we have, the less frequently each person will be needed. If you can help, or would like to find out more, please speak to Juliette or email the parish office. Thank you.

The Gloria

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will.
We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

First Reading — Isaiah 22:15, 19-23

Thus says the Lord GOD of hosts, 'Come, go to this steward, to Shebna, who is over the household, and say to him: "I will thrust you from your office, and you will be pulled down from your station. In that day I will call my servant Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, and I will clothe him with your robe, and will bind your sash on him, and will commit your authority to his hand. And he shall be a father to the inhabitants of Jerusalem and to the house of Judah. And I will place on his shoulder the key of the house of David. He shall open, and none shall shut; and he shall shut, and none shall open. And I will fasten him like a peg in a secure place, and he will become a throne of honour to his father's house."'

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

O LORD, your merciful love is eternal; discard not the work of your hands.

Second Reading — Romans 11:33-36

Oh, the depth of the riches and wisdom and knowledge of God! How unsearchable are his judgements and how inscrutable his ways! 'For who has known the mind of the Lord, or who has been his counsellor?' 'Or who has given a gift to him that he might be repaid?' For from him and through him and to him are all things. To him be glory for ever.
Amen.

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia.
You are Peter, and on this rock I will build my Church, and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it.
Alleluia.

Gospel — Matthew 16:13-20

At that time: When Jesus came into the district of Caesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, 'Who do people say that the Son of Man is?' And they said, 'Some say John the Baptist, others say Elijah, and others Jeremiah or one of the prophets.' He said to them, 'But who do you say that I am?' Simon Peter replied, 'You are the Christ, the Son of the living God.' And Jesus answered him, 'Blessed are you, Simon Bar-Jonah! For flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but my Father who is in heaven. And I tell you, you are Peter, and on this rock I will build my Church, and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it. I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven, and whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.' Then he strictly charged the disciples to tell no one that he was the Christ.

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

Sunday 30th August 2026
22nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading — Jeremiah 20:7-9

O LORD, you have deceived me, and I was deceived; you are stronger than I, and you have prevailed. I have become a laughing-stock all the day; everyone mocks me. For whenever I speak, I cry out, I shout, 'Violence and destruction!' For the word of the LORD has become for me a reproach and derision all day long. If I say, 'I will not mention him, or speak any more in his name', there is in my heart as it were a burning fire shut up in my bones, and I am weary with holding it in, and I cannot.

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

For you my soul is thirsting, O Lord, my God.

Second Reading — Romans 12:1-2

I appeal to you, brothers and sisters, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is your spiritual worship. Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewal of your mind, that by testing you may discern what is the will of God, what is good and acceptable and perfect.

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia.
May the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, enlighten the eyes of our hearts, so that we may know the hope to which he has called us.
Alleluia.

Gospel — Matthew 16:21-27

At that time: Jesus began to show his disciples that he must go to Jerusalem and suffer many things from the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and on the third day be raised. And Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him, saying, 'Far be it from you, Lord! This shall never happen to you.' But he turned and said to Peter, 'Get behind me, Satan! You are a hindrance to me. For you are not setting your mind on the things of God, but on the things of man.' Then Jesus told his disciples, 'If anyone would come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow me. For whoever would save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake will find it. For what will it profit a man if he gains the whole world and forfeits his soul? Or what shall a man give in return for his soul? For the Son of Man is going to come with his angels in the glory of his Father, and then he will repay each person according to what he has done.'

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.
