Fr Paul Writes: Salt of the Earth and Light of the World...

The imagery used by Jesus in Matthew's Gospel, imploring us to be 'salt of the earth and light of the world' perhaps lacks the impact in today's world that it might have had in the past. Today many are trying to reduce their salt intake for the good of their health, but some salt is necessary for good health and, in the past was essential to life itself. Not only did it enhance the flavour of food, but it was widely used to preserve food though times of shortage. It was so valued that it was used in religious offerings in Ancient Egypt, was sometimes used to pay Roman soldiers, (hence the word salary), and was often taxed, leading to the smuggling of salt in 18th century Britain, and to political unrest in many parts of the world.

To describe someone as 'the salt of the earth' is to suggest that they are unpretentiously trustworthy and reliable. This is a good thing to be simply as a human being, but Christ implies that our faith, too, should be like that, unpretentious, trustworthy and reliable, but also not insipid but full of flavour, just as salt can enhance food making it not just fuel for our bodies but adding joy to our lives. Our faith, too, must be full of flavour.

Christ also uses the image of light. Again, in our electrically illuminated world, we can easily fail to recognise the power that light had in the lives of people in the past, and in many places still, when it was a precious phenomenon that gave a sense of safety and showed the way ahead. A man taking an after-dark balloon-ride over London in the 1780s was impressed most by the 'lines of fire' of the streetlights. Today we may lack that sense of wonder, but we are, nonetheless, called to be people of light, whose faith shines out so that others may see the light and love of God in us and the way we live our lives.

Our faith is, above all, faith in God's love. Christ calls us to experience it as the flavour of our life and to let it shine out in our loving service to others.

Special Collection for the Arundel & Brighton Lourdes Pilgrimage

As you will have seen from the Newsletter and heard at Mass, we will be taking a collection in support of the Arundel & Brighton Diocesan Lourdes Pilgrimage. Each year around 700 people travel to Lourdes, including approximately 130 Assisted Pilgrims who are frail, elderly, sick, or living with disabilities. They are supported throughout the pilgrimage by dedicated doctors, nurses, healthcare professionals, and volunteers.

Around 150 young people aged 15–29 also take part. Over many years, the pilgrimage has helped countless people encounter God's love and healing, spiritually, emotionally, and physically, and has inspired many young people to return renewed in faith and more actively involved in parish life.

The pilgrimage depends entirely on volunteers and generous donations. Your support helps subsidise Assisted Pilgrims, those who care for them, and young people responding to the call of the Annunciation, to listen, to welcome, and to say "yes".

In 2025, around £60,000 was needed to support those unable to afford the full cost. Donations may be made via the collection, the parish contactless machine, or the Diocesan website. Gift Aid is available. Thank you for your generosity.

All who support the pilgrimage will be remembered in prayer at the Grotto this summer.

Martlets Hospice fundraising at SP

Many of you will have known someone who has benefitted from this wonderful resource, perhaps as a patient or receiving outreach services. We are fortunate to have this in our area but it relies on private financial support. Some hospices have waiting lists while beds are empty as they cannot afford to staff them. St Peter's has raised over £400 for the Martlets in the last few months, through coffee donations and small sales after Mass. Please support these and go home with a bargain or a nice gift, or just pop in for a biscuit and cafetière coffee!

Fifth Sunday in Ordinary time

Entrance Antiphon

O come, let us worship God and bow low before the God who made us, for he is the Lord our God.

Gloria

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will.

We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father.

Amen.

Collect

Keep your family safe, O Lord, with unflinching care, that, relying solely on the hope of heavenly grace, they may be defended always by your protection. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

First Reading: Isaiah 58:6-10 ·

Thus says the Lord:

Is not this the fast that I choose: to loose the bonds of wickedness, to undo the straps of the yoke, to let the oppressed go free, and to break every yoke? Is it not to share your bread with the hungry and bring the homeless poor into your house; when you see the naked, to cover him, and not to hide yourself from your own flesh?

Then shall your light break forth like the dawn, and your healing shall spring up speedily; your righteousness shall go before you; the glory of the LORD shall be your rearguard.

Then you shall call, and the LORD will answer; you shall cry, and he will say, 'Here I am.' If you take away the yoke from your midst, the pointing of the finger, and speaking wickedness, if you pour yourself out for the hungry and satisfy the desire of the afflicted, then shall your light rise in the darkness and your gloom be as the noonday.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm Response

A light rises in the darkness for the upright.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 2:1-5 ·

I, when I came to you, brothers and sisters, did not come proclaiming to you the testimony of God with lofty speech or wisdom. For I decided to know nothing among you except Jesus Christ and him crucified. And I was with you in weakness and in fear and much trembling, and my speech and my message were not in plausible words of wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power, so that your faith might not rest in the wisdom of men but in the power of God.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia.

I am the light of the world, says the Lord; whoever follows me will have the light of life.

Alleluia.

Gospel: Matthew 5:13-16

At that time: Jesus said to his disciples, 'You are the salt of the earth, but if salt has lost its taste, how shall its saltiness be restored? It is no longer good for anything except to be thrown out and trampled under people's feet.

'You are the light of the world. A city set on a hill cannot be hidden. Nor do people light a lamp and put it under a basket, but on a stand, and it gives light to all in the house. In the same way, let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father who is in heaven.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Prayer over the Offerings O Lord, our God, who once established these created things to sustain us in our frailty, grant, we pray, that they may become for us now the Sacrament of eternal life. Through Christ our Lord.

Communion Antiphon

Let them thank the Lord for his mercy, his wonders for the children of men, for he satisfies the thirsty soul, and the hungry he fills with good things.

Profession of Faith

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, (all bow during the next three lines) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.

Amen.
