Saint Philip Howard, Earl of Arundel, Martyr, Co-principal Patron of the Diocese

World Mission Sunday 2025

Canon David Writes...

This Sunday our Diocese celebrates one of its two principal patron's, St. Philip Howard (1557 – 1595). The Mass and the readings will be those, not of the 29th Sunday of the year, rather those assigned to the celebration of Martyrs. The details are to be found in the Diocesan Directory. St. Philip's shrine is in Arundel Cathedral and in this month of his feast day it might be worth a visit and a prayer for his intercession if you have the time. The Cathedral is usually open daily, but check before you travel. If you can't make it across then read about his life and ask for his intercession.

Equally inspiring is the life of his wife, Anne Dacre, whose prayers and fidelity helped St. Philip back to the right path when his faith had become weak. He had also been deeply touched by the preaching of St. Edmund Campion. For St. Philip had become fascinated with all the goings on at the court of Queen Elizabeth I and all this took place in the context of the Reformation, so a bit more of a tricky time than usual, although each age has its challenges. The Queen's officers had him imprisoned for his return to the Catholic faith and he died, from neglect, a martyr in the Tower of London. There are many lessons to take from the lives of St. Philip and his wife but perhaps preaching and fidelity could be identified on this World Mission Sunday (WMS).

Here is a quote from the material sent through to me by Missio. "WMS is coordinated by Missio, the Pope's official charity for world mission, and ensures that support reaches communities most in need of great poverty, conflict and turmoil. Everyone is asked to play their part so that those in greatest need receive support. In 2024, Catholics in Rwanda raised £12,000; Ecuador raised £197,000; Italy raised £3.3 million; and here in England and Wales we raised £790,000. Every Catholic community, in every country, will be sending a powerful message of faith, hope and love through their prayers and donations. Missio exists to help all Catholics take part in this life-changing mission."

Are you interested in becoming a School Governor?

St Mary's Catholic Primary School, Portslade We'd like to share an exciting opportunity to get involved in the life of our school community. St Mary's currently has a Governor Associate Member vacancy, and we thought it might be of interest to the Parish. This is an exciting opportunity to contribute to the life of our school and help us continue to grow and thrive. Please see below for further details. Do you have specific knowledge and skills in health and safety or finance? Associate Members are not full governors but play an important part in the work of the governing body, offering expertise and guidance to support decision-making. If you or someone you know has the relevant experience and would like to make a positive difference to our school community, please speak with Mrs Clayton or Mrs Ryan.

St Mary Magdalen's Catholic Primary School and Nursery, Brighton There are currently vacancies on the Governing Board for one Parent Governor and two Foundation Governors. There is no magic formula about what makes a perfect Foundation Governor, they come from all occupations and all ages. Foundation Governors play an especially key role in Catholic Schools; the role is diverse, rewarding, challenging, and fulfilling allowing post holders to share their time, skills, and talents within a school setting. You will be encouraged to attend training sessions and will be supported in your role. The average Foundation Governor position will take up about 10-12 hours per month though this can vary depending on the school calendar or events, such as Ofsted inspections. The time commitment includes the minimum requirement of attending three full governor meetings per year. If you are interested in becoming a school governor, please contact Michelle McCann, Clerk to Governors, for more information via: michellemccann@stmarymags.brighton-hove.sch.uk

Gloria

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will.

We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father.

Amen.

First Reading: Wisdom 3:1-9

The souls of the righteous are in the hand of God, and no torment will ever touch them.

In the eyes of the foolish they seemed to have died, and their departure was thought to be an evil thing, and their going from us to be their destruction; but they are at peace.

For though in the sight of men they were punished, their hope is full of immortality.

Having been disciplined a little, they will receive great good, because God tested them and found them worthy of himself; like gold in the furnace he tried them, and like a sacrificial whole burnt offering he accepted them.

In the time of their visitation they will shine forth and will run like sparks through the stubble.

They will govern nations and rule over peoples, and the Lord will reign over them for ever.

Those who trust in him will understand truth, and the faithful will abide with him in love, because grace and mercy are upon his holy ones, and he watches over his chosen.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm Response

Into your hands, O LORD, I commend my spirit.

Second Reading: 2 Corinthians 4:7-15

Brothers and Sisters: We have this treasure in jars of clay, to show that the surpassing power belongs to God and not to us. We are afflicted in every way, but not crushed; perplexed, but not driven to despair; persecuted, but not forsaken; struck down, but not destroyed; always carrying in the body the death of Jesus, so that the life of Jesus may also be manifested in our bodies. For we who live are always being given over to death for the sake of Jesus, so that the life of Jesus also may be manifested in our mortal flesh. So death is at work in us, but life in you. Since we have the same spirit of faith according to what has been written, 'I believed, and so I spoke', we also believe, and so we also speak, knowing that he who raised the Lord Jesus will raise us also with Jesus and bring us with you into his presence. For it is all for your sake, so that as grace extends to more and more people it may increase thanksgiving, to the glory of God.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!

Happy those who are persecuted in the cause of right, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Alleluia!

Gospel: Matthew 10:17-22

At that time: Jesus instructed his Apostles: 'Beware of men, for they will deliver you over to councils and flog you in their synagogues, and you will be dragged before governors and kings for my sake, to bear witness before them and the Gentiles. When they deliver you over, do not be anxious how you are to speak or what you are to say, for what you are to say will be given to you in that hour. For it is not you who speak, but the Spirit of your Father speaking through you. Brother will deliver brother over to death, and the father his child, and children will rise against parents and have them put to death, and you will be hated by all for my name's sake. But the one who endures to the end will be saved.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Profession of Faith

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God, begotten,
not made,
consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, (all bow during the next three lines)
and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,

he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,

who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,

who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy,
catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.

Amen.
